

Please do not stop XM from providing local traffic and weather. They simply give a more in depth report than any other station on the dial. You can not punish over one million listeners simply because someone with a worse product doesn't like competition.

We pay for this service, and therefore we as consumers should be able to dictate what it is that we like and don't like. We like XM.